The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to raise the necessary funds to meet its obligations.
 This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the government has been unable to collect the necessary taxes, and the fact that the government has been unable to borrow the necessary funds from the international market.
 The second factor is the fact that the government has been unable to implement the necessary reforms to the economy. This has led to a number of problems, including inflation, unemployment, and a general decline in the standard of living. The third factor is the fact that the government has been unable to maintain a stable political environment. This has led to a number of problems, including corruption, and a general lack of confidence in the government.
 These factors have all contributed to the current economic crisis. The government must take immediate action to address these problems, or the crisis will continue to worsen.
